

Step 1: Spend about 5 minutes researching Hindu and Buddhist holidays. Choose one Hindu holiday and one Buddhist holiday. Pick holidays which interest you the most.

Once you've chosen your holidays, spend around 20 minutes researching them more thoroughly. Take some notes about what you find in the chart below

Hindu Holiday:	Buddhist Holiday:
When and where is the holiday celebrated or practiced?	When and where is the holiday celebrated or practiced?
What is the religious or cultural significance of the holiday?	What is the religious or cultural significance of the holiday?
What are the ways in which this holiday is celebrated or practiced? Are there specific customs or artifacts that are practiced or used during the holiday?	What are the ways in which this holiday is celebrated or practiced? Are there specific customs or artifacts that are practiced or used during the holiday?
How does the holiday contribute to the cultural landscape where it is practiced?	How does the holiday contribute to the cultural landscape where it is practiced?

Step 2: Once you've completed your research, write a $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ page essay in your HuG Passport about the two holidays in which you compare and contrast them. What do they have in common? What makes them different from each other? Explain.