

Homer vs. the 18th Amendment

Name: _____

Period: _____ Date: _____

1. Who made up the majority of the mob wanting prohibition?
2. Why did they want Prohibition?
3. What is the name given on the establishment serving illegal alcohol?
4. How was the Mafia (Fat Tony) involved in prohibition?
5. Providing stolen or illegal goods, in this case alcohol, is called what? Today it applies to illegally burned or recorded music and movies.
6. What popular dance of the '20s is Chief Wiggam doing when caught in Moe's "Pet Shop"?
7. Mayor Quimby calls Maud and Mrs. Lovejoy "a bunch of low-income nobodies". His bodyguard reminds him an election is coming up. Why would this make a difference to Quimby?
8. How does Quimby contact Rex Banner?
9. Why would the writers of the episode use this method of communication to contact Rex Banner?
10. Translate this '20s slang: "Listen Rummy, I'm gonna say it plain and simple. Where'd you pinch the hooch? Is some blind tiger jerkin' suds on the side?"
11. Describe the narrator's speech. Why would they have a narrator at points in this episode?

Bonus:

- A) What are Wiggam and the other officers watching when Banner arrives?
- B) Comic Book Guy refers to a superhero. Which superhero?